- Accurate completion of entry and all other mark sheets and adherence to deadlines as set by the Data & Exams Officer.
- Accurate completion of coursework / controlled assessment mark sheets and declaration sheets.
- Decisions on post-results procedures.

Teachers are responsible for:

- Supplying information on entries, coursework Non-examination assessment policy as required by the Assistant Head/Deputy Head (Curriculum)/Deputy Head and/or Data & Communication Manager/Data & Exam officers.

The Special Educational Needs and Disabilities Coordinators (SENDCos)/Deputy Head (Curriculum) are responsible for:

- identification and testing of candidates' requirements for access arrangements and notifying the Data & Exams Officer and Assistant Heads in good time so that they are able to put in place exam day arrangements.
- Process any necessary applications in order to gain approval (if required).
- Working with the Data & Exams Officer and Assistant Heads to provide the access arrangements required by candidates in exams rooms.

Invigilators are responsible for:

- The efficient running of exams according to JCQ regulations.
- Collection of exam papers and other material from the exams office before the start of the exam.
- Collection of all exam papers in the correct order at the end of the exam and ensuring their return to the exams office.
- Sole Invigilators have their mobile phones on silent in their possession in order to contact AH or Data and Exams Officer in case of need.

Candidates are responsible for:

- Confirmation and signing of entries.
- Understanding coursework / Non-examination assessment policy regulations and signing a declaration that authenticates the coursework as their own.
- Ensuring they conduct themselves in all exams according to the JCQ regulations.

3. Qualifications offered

The Deputy Head (Curriculum) decides the qualifications offered within the APC.

The types of qualifications offered are GCSE, Entry Level, Functional Skill and Vocational.

The Subject Teacher in consultation with the SENDCos and Examinations Officers will take decisions on whether a candidate should be entered for a particular subject.

4. Exam series

Internal exams are held under external exam conditions.

The APC does offer some assessments on an on-demand basis. If offered, on-demand assessments can be scheduled only in windows agreed between the Deputy Head (Curriculum) and the Examinations Officers.

5. Exam timetables

Once confirmed, the Data & Exams Officers will circulate the exam timetables for internal and/or external exams before each series begins.

6. Entries

Entry details and late entries

Candidates or parents/carers cannot request a subject entry, change of level or withdrawal.

WSAPC does not accept entries from private candidates.

WSAPC does not act as an exams centre for other organisations.

Entry deadlines are circulated to Assistant Heads/Deputy Head (Curriculum) /Subject Teachers via email and posted on Share-point.

Assistant Head/Deputy Head (Curriculum)/Subject Teachers will provide estimated entry information to the Data & Exams Officers to meet JCQ and awarding body deadlines.

Entries and amendments made after an awarding organisation's deadline (i.e. late) require the authorisation, in writing, of budget holders.

GCSE re-sits/retakes are allowed.

Functional skills re-sits/retakes are allowed.

Re-sit decisions will be made by Head Teacher/Assistant Heads in consultation with Subject Teachers.

The college exam entry procedures are set out separately in Appendix 1 in this document.

7. Estimated grades

Subject Teachers are responsible for submitting predicted grades to the Data & Exams Officer if and when requested by the Data & Exams Officer.

8. Exam fees

Candidates or departments will not be charged for changes of tier, withdrawals made by the proper procedures or alterations arising from administrative processes provided these are made within the time allowed by the awarding bodies.

The Data & Exams Officer will publish the deadline for actions well in advance for each exams series.

GCSE entry exam fees are paid from the allocated WSAPC exams budget.

Functional skills entry exam fees are paid from the allocated WSAPC exams budget.

Late entry or amendment fees are paid by from the allocated WSAPC exams budget.

Re-sit fees are paid from the WSAPC exams budget.

Fee reimbursements are sought from candidates if they do not meet the necessary coursework requirements or do not attend an exam without medical evidence or evidence of other mitigating circumstances.

9. Equality Legislation

All staff involved in the exam process must ensure that they meet the requirements of any equality legislation.

WSAPC will comply with the legislation, including making reasonable adjustments to the service that they provide to candidates in accordance with requirements defined by the legislation, awarding bodies, and JCQ. This is the responsibility of the Head Teacher.

10. Access arrangements

The SENDCos/Deputy Head (Curriculum) will inform Subject Teachers of candidates with special educational needs and of any special arrangements that individual candidates will need during the course and in any assessments/exams.

A candidate's access arrangements requirement is determined by the SENDCos.

Ensuring there is appropriate evidence for a candidate's access arrangement is the responsibility of SENDCos.

SENDCos gathers signed Personal data consent, Privacy Notice (AAO) and Data Protection confirmation forms (candidate personal data consent form) from candidates where required.

SENDCos apply for approval through Access arrangements online (AAO) via the Centre Admin Portal (Cap) where required or through the awarding body where qualifications sit outside the scope of AAO.

Submitting completed access arrangement applications to the awarding bodies is the responsibility of the SENDCos with assistance from the Data and Exams Officer.

SENDCos will keep a file for each candidate for JCQ inspection purpose containing all the required documentation (if any documentation is kept electronically, in the event of an IT failure at the time of an inspection is able to access this documentation in an alternative format).

The SENDCos/Assistant Heads will arrange rooming for access arrangement candidates.

Word Processors are allowed in examinations if it is the pupil's normal way of working and agreed by SENDCos in accordance with JCQ regulations and College Word Processor/Laptop policy.

All access arrangement must be passed by the Data & Exams Officer to ensure JCQ regulations are adhered to.

Invigilation and support for access arrangement candidates, as defined in the JCQ access arrangements regulations, will be organised by the Assistant Heads.

11. Contingency planning

Contingency planning for exams administration is the responsibility of the Head Teacher/Assistant Heads/Data & Communication Manager.

Contingency plans are available on Sharepoint and via email and are in line with the guidance provided by Ofqual, JCQ and awarding organisations. See college Exam Contingency Policy.

12. Managing invigilators

External staff may be used to invigilate examinations in certain circumstances. Invigilators are trained and briefed by the SENDCos/Data and Exams Officers.

JCQ Regulation training sessions must be held for new invigilators and update meetings must be held for existing invigilators annually.

13. Malpractice

The Assistant Heads in consultation with the Data & Communications Manager/Examinations Officers are responsible for investigating suspected malpractice.

14. Exam days

The Data & Exams Officer will make the question papers, other exam stationery and materials available for the invigilator.

Premise management staff are responsible for setting up the allocated rooms, and will be advised of requirements in advance.

The Invigilator will start and finish all exams in accordance with JCQ guidelines.

Subject staff may be present at the start of the exam to assist with identification of candidates. Any staff present must be in accordance with the rules defined by JCQ concerning who is allowed in the exam room and what they can do.

In practical exams, subject teachers' availability will be in accordance with JCQ guidelines.

Exam papers must not be read by subject teachers or removed from the exam room before the end of a session. Papers will be distributed to Assistant Heads in accordance with JCQ's recommendations.

After an exam, the Data & Exams Officers will arrange for the safe and timely dispatch of completed examination scripts to awarding bodies.

15. Candidates

The Data & Exams Officers will provide written information to candidates in advance of each exam series.

The WSAPC's published rules on acceptable behaviour apply at all times. Candidates' personal belongings remain their own responsibility and the college accepts no liability for their loss or damage.

In an exam room, candidates must not have access to items other than those clearly allowed in the instructions on the question paper, the stationery list, or the specification for that subject. This is particularly true of mobile phones and other electronic communication or storage devices with text or digital facilities. Any precluded items must not be taken into an exam room.

Disruptive candidates are dealt with in accordance with JCQ guidelines.

Note: candidates who leave an exam room must be accompanied by an appropriate member of staff at all times.

The Assistant Heads are responsible for handling late or absent candidates on exam day.

16. Clash candidates

The Assistant Heads will be responsible as necessary for supervising escorts, identifying a secure venue and arranging overnight stays.

17. Special consideration

Should a candidate be unable to attend an exam because of illness, suffer bereavement or other trauma, be ill or otherwise disadvantaged or disturbed during an exam, then it is the candidate's responsibility to alert the appropriate Assistant Head to that effect.

The candidate must support any special consideration claim with appropriate evidence within seven days of the exam.

The Data & Exams Officer will make a special consideration application to the relevant awarding body within seven days of the exam.

17. Internal assessment and endorsements

WSAPC is committed to ensuring that whenever its staff marks candidates' non-examination assessment this is done fairly, consistently and in accordance with the awarding body's specification and subject-specific associated documents.

Staff who have appropriate knowledge, understanding and skill, and who have trained in this activity will mark candidates' work. The WSAPC is committed to ensuring that work produced by candidates is authenticated in line with requirements of the awarding body. Where a number of subject teachers are involved in marking candidates' work, internal moderation and standardisation will ensure consistency of marking.

If a candidate believes that this may not have happened in relation to his/her work, he/she may make use of the appeals procedure.

After candidates' work had been internally assessed, it is moderated by the awarding body to ensure consistency in marking between centres. The moderation process may lead to mark changes. This process is out of the control of WSAPC and is not covered by this procedure.

See College GCSE Non-Examination Assessment Policy

18. Results

Candidates will receive individual results slips on results days

- In person at the centre
- By first class post to their home address
- By e-mail (prior arrangement)

The results slip will be in the form of a WSAPC produced document.

The Head Teacher/Assistant Heads make arrangements for WSAPC centres to be open on results days.

The provision of the necessary staff on results days is the responsibility of the Head Teacher/Assistant Heads.

19. Reviews of Results (RoRs)

RoRs may be requested by WSAPC staff or the candidate following the release of results. A request for a re-mark or clerical check requires the written consent of the candidate, a request for a re-moderation of internally assessed work may be submitted without the consent of the group of candidates.

The cost of RoRs will be paid from the allocated exam budget by the centre attended by the pupil, unless the request is made by the candidate.

All decisions on whether to make an application for an RoR will be made by the Assistant Head/Subject Teacher.

If a candidate's request for an RoR is not supported, the candidate may appeal and the centre will respond by following the process in its Internal Appeals Procedure (IAP) document.

All processing of RORs will be the responsibility of the Data and Exams Officers, following the JCQ guidance.

20. Access to Scripts (ATS)

After the release of results, candidates may ask subject staff to request the return of written exam papers.

WSAPC staff may also request scripts for investigation or for teaching purposes. For the latter, the consent of candidates must be obtained.

An RoR cannot be applied for once an original script has been returned.

Processing of requests for ATS will be the responsibility of the Data and Exams Officers.

21. Certificates

Candidates will receive their certificates

- in person at the centre
- posted (recorded delivery) only if an SAE with the correct postage is received from the candidate
- collected by an authorised agent, and signed for.

Certificates can be collected on behalf of a candidate by third parties, provided they have written authority from the candidate to do so, and bring suitable identification with them that confirms who they are.

Any uncollected certificates may be destroyed after a period of two years.

22. Monitoring and Review

This policy will be monitored and reviewed annually.
